JNESO District Council 1 Endorses Members of NJ Legislature For November Election

North Brunswick, N.J. (Oct. 15, 2019) – JNESO District Council 1, representing more than 5,000 healthcare workers, is proud to announce the endorsement of candidates for the New Jersey State Legislature.

The JNESO Board of Directors, unanimously voted to endorse these candidates after a thorough review of voting records, public positions and responses to a top healthcare issues questionnaire.

“These candidates have shown support for JNESO and our efforts to protect and preserve the quality of care for patients, and to improve working conditions for all nurses, techs and healthcare professionals throughout the State of New Jersey,” said Doug Placa, Executive Director of JNESO.

The top issues for JNESO union members include passing legislation to require safe staffing ratios for nurses, reinstatement of regularly scheduled hospital inspections, and guaranteed collective bargaining rights for healthcare employees.

“These individuals understand the issues that matter most to our membership,” said Placa. “They stand with patients and healthcare workers and deserve our support.”

JNESO represents more than 5,000 healthcare professionals in facilities across New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The JNESO union represents nurses, medical technicians, medical support personnel, caregivers and others in the healthcare field. www.jneso.org
